OCTOBER CLUB MEETING DATE MOVED

In order for Waltham ARA members to be at home to give out candy on Halloween, or to go Trick-or-Treating, the October 2018 club meeting will be held on the next to last Wednesday of the month, October 24. See our Meetings page for further info: www.walthamara.org/meetings/

THE IFFY FURUTURE OF PHI

Eliot Mayer, W1MJ

As we announced in the last issue of PHI, Mark Bolls, K1KGG, has stepped down from his position of PHI editor after cranking out the newsletter for over a decade!

I am putting out this brief issue, but will not make a habit of it, as I already do enough volunteer work for the club. We need a new editor if this illustrious publication is to have a future!

The editor's job involves gathering news and photos for two issues each year, Spring and Fall. Familiarity with Microsoft Word is a plus. The salary is terrible. I am glad to continue handling distribution. If you think you might be interested, but would like more info, ask me or ask one of our past editors (See Boxboro article).

BOXBORO

Eliot Mayer, W1MJ

The ARRL New England Division Convention, AKA "Boxboro", is now an annual event. Here are some photos of Waltham ARA members and friends at the event. For more info about the convention, see www.boxboro.org.

Ned W1NED and Ron KG1T signed up new members and accepted renewals at the WARA booth.
